COURSE

This course is useful for immigration practitioners wishing to develop and master critical immigration advocacy skills. It will also cover key principles and procedures in the appeals process.

WHAT?

Preparing appeal at:

- First Tier Tribunal and Asylum Chamber

Immigration tribunal procedures:

- How identify core issues and lodge the appeal
- The time limits involved and how to deal with out of time appeals
- The grounds of appeal and the Tribunal's jurisdiction & amending the grounds
- Preparing for the appeal hearing
- Preparing a chronology
- Skeleton arguments
- Directions pre-hearing
- Rules of Evidence
- What happens in a Tribunal hearing?
- The Tribunals Procedure Rules
- The appeal hearing
- After the hearing

WHY?

As an immigration lawyer, you know that practicing in immigration court is increasingly rife with hurdles and complexity. You are also aware that more and more firms are looking for caseworkers to develop their advocacy skills and to allow them to represent clients before the First tier Tribunal.

Optimus Law recognises this reality and, in response, has developed this specialised program designed to help you rapidly upgrade your skills in both preparation and presentation at the immigration tribunals.

WHO?

Aimed at those with, or seeking qualification at IAAS level 2/OISC level 3.

You will have experience of appeal preparation and wish to develop your advocacy skills.
